The PROMISE

Christmas 2016 Edition

Welcome!

When promises are broken, trust is broken & when trust is broken, relationships suffer. When promises are kept, trust is given & when trust is given, relationships thrive. We all know this to be true. This Christmas, we celebrate the one promise that has never been broken, a promise that is made to us...
A promise of LIFE.

Our New Website is now LIVE!

Make sure you take the time to check it out.
