Last week's message not available just yet.

What a great morning we had last Sunday as we celebrated Father's Day together at Playford. We enjoyed Bacon and Eggs for breakfast cooked with love and served with a smile by many of our youth. We were inspired as we prayed for the men of congregation and community, we were encouraged by our guest speaker, Roger Brook from Compassion and we were somewhat entertained by those few who tried to play touch football afterwards - so many things that expand our idea of what it means to be part of a church family. Thank you to all who were involved in planning, preparing, serving, participating and playing. Being the church is not just about singing songs and listening to sermons but about living this life together for each other's good and God's glory. Well done!

In a generation where almost every part of our life is photographed and posted, it is hard to do anything quietly. A generation ago only sporting and movie stars had no privacy but ordinary folks like us now get to share the stage with "celebrities" as we 'ordinary folks' can be celebrities at least for a moment.

From the meal you just baked, to the strange insect that you found on your window sill, our world loves to not only seize the moment but share the moment. It's almost as if we struggle sometimes to be simply in our own company.

In world that seeks to do everything publically, Jesus brings a liberating and refreshing word that speaks of discovering the secret life, a life where even the good things that we do are not for our glory, but for His. It is a life that is truly Blessed, because it is celebrated quietly, by God Himself. Grace and peace, Pete
